"Launching a "BRM Academy" in a multinational group like Nestlé can be a bit daunting..this is why I have reached out to the BRM Institute to take full advantage of their easy to deploy packages. We used the "BRM Fundamentals" to build out our BRM Essentials program. Every chapter brings a new foundational concept, and we then added our Nestlé flavor to integrate it within our overall transformation efforts. Great industry material, take it, use it and bring BRM to life."
